

Volunteer Highlights: Latin America

Juarez, Mexico

Employees helped paint six buildings (23 classrooms) and two garden yards at the Escuela Primaria Federal República de Brasil in 2018 to improve the conditions of the school.

Volunteers visited Casa del Niño y El Anciano with the goal of making a positive impact in the lives of the residents of the shelter. They held a rally for the children and provided music for the elderly. They also lunched together and painted some areas in need at the shelter.

On another occasion, employees spent time with the children of Casa del Niño y El Anciano, sharing a story, craft activities cake, candies and lunch.

Another team of volunteers visited Albergue La Vid shelter, where they entertained the children with a story teller, crafts and soccer. The children and volunteers ate lunch and tamales together.

The children of the Albergue Santa Maria orphanage were delighted with the games volunteers organized for them during their visit. Additionally, volunteers brought breakfast and a movie.

A visit to the Asilo Principe de Paz senior center brought joy to the residents as they participated in craft activities, lotería and dominos with Lexmark volunteers. The group shared breakfast with tamales as well.

Lexmark Juarez volunteers provided some schoolbooks for the children of the Albergue Misión con Visión shelter.

Employees volunteered time at the Refugio Para Jovencitas to lime and prune trees, clear weeds and clean the patio area.

Volunteer Highlights: Latin America (cont.)

The ladies of Refugio Para Jovencitas enjoyed a personality test activity brought to them by Lexmark Women at Work (W@W). Afterward, the group shared lunch and played a game of "dado" with all residents.

Parque Antártica received a makeover when Lexmark Juarez volunteers and their families invited the community to join them for a park cleanup, which included cleaning and weeding, liming the trees, and providing a fresh coat of paint to the benches and play and picnic areas.

Another tree planting event was held at Escuela Primaria Huejotitan as part of the Fondo Unido (United Way México) campaign. In addition to the 30 trees planted, volunteers also painted nine classrooms and two garden yards.

The volunteers and residents of the nursing home Casa Hogar Esperanza shared breakfast and enjoyed activities such as lotería, painting and dominos.

The children of Nuevo Camino orphanage had breakfast with Lexmark volunteers before continuing with craft and sports activities. The team supplied cake for dessert.

As part of the annual Fondo Unido (United Way México) campaign, a Lexmark Juarez team planted 30 trees at Escuela Primaria Federal Carlos Monsivais Aceves.